

Northwest Georgia Workforce Development Board Policy and Procedures Youth Services Drop-out Policy

Youth, aged 16 years or under, that have not been out of school for at least the recent complete school semester or calendar quarter, will be encourage to return to school or apply for WIOA at a later date.

Exceptions may be made when these youth are parents or with the school superintendent's approval in writing explaining the circumstances as to why the applicant had to drop out of school or why the applicant would benefit from the training.

Any youth that is attending High School may apply for in-school youth programs only.